| 29 | with the exception of the G6 (Danny Searson) advising we could not do this right up until the week before. | 3/14/2017 5:17 AM |
| 30 | No but I had to provide my manager with several extracts from various sources and explain the HR guidance by splitting paragraphs down as she thought the phrase that 7.30 starts should not be the norm applied to everyone and was not relating to those who started after 8.00am. She is fine now but I keep getting told it is because there is work but with my workload there is always going to be work! | 3/14/2017 5:15 AM |
| 31 | Not applicable to me as I elected to have no 8am starts | 3/14/2017 5:03 AM |
| 32 | AAU | 3/14/2017 4:41 AM |
| 33 | Senior Manager quoting "without Meaningful work" cant sign on before 7:45 or sign out after 6. As we are a support area not tied to phone lines opening there is always work outside of these times. | 3/14/2017 3:55 AM |

| 56 | Someone on my team was on annual leave and affixed to an 8 am. I was on a 9 but had no choice due to other circumstances but then to come in before 8. I was not allowed to swap to the 8 that wasn't being covered and start at 7.30. I had to sit here and wait till 8. I really don't see why a swap wouldn't have made sense. | 3/14/2017 2:19 AM |
| 57 | But I realise that it's not about being able to flex on, more about being available across the full working day | 3/14/2017 2:18 AM |
